Factsheet “Violence against Women costs Peruvian Businesses Billions Every Year”

The factsheet provides information on the process of studying the business costs of violence against women in Peru and the significant economic impact of violence against women to the detriment of competitiveness. The study opens a line of research in business sciences in Latin America, which relates productivity, gender and violence from a social responsibility approach.

Download (2013, pdf, 2 MB)

View in Spanish | View in German

Revision #3
Created 29 September 2023 19:21:26 by Karen López
Updated 12 December 2023 19:17:40 by Karen López