

Factsheet ‘Strengthening the specialist judicial system to prevent violence against women’

Violence against women (VAW) is the most widespread human rights violation and is a complex and systemic problem. In Peru, around 70% of women have experienced violence at the hands of their partner (ENARES -INEI, 2019). In 2018, Peru’s national specialized justice system to protect and punish violence against women and family members (SNEJ) was founded. Its goal is to strengthen the legal frameworks for protection and punishing VAW and to improve response times and support for victims.

Strengthening the specialist judicial system to prevent violence against women

FoU(SNEJ)

Context

Violence against women (VAW) is the most widespread human rights violation and is a complex and systemic problem. In Peru, around 70% of women have experienced violence at the hands of their partner (ENARES -INEI, 2019).

In 2018, Peru's national specialized justice system to protect and punish violence against women and family members (SNEJ) was founded. Its goal is to strengthen the legal frameworks for protection and punishing VAW and to improve response times and support for victims.

Strengthening Peru's specialist judicial system to protect and punish violence against women and family members (SNEJ)
SNEJ - National Specialized Justice System to Protect and Punish Violence Against Women and Family Members (2018)
SNEJ - National Specialized Justice System to Protect and Punish Violence Against Women and Family Members (2018)

Objective

SNEJ has been strengthened and will be able to help in the case of gender-based violence against women and family members.

Download \(2021, pdf, 359 KB\)

View in Spanish | View in German

Revision #7

Created 27 September 2023 18:59:55 by Karen López

Updated 26 February 2024 11:39:33 by Karen López