“Strong together. Stopping violence in its tracks” is a program for girls and boys aged six to nine years old that focuses on preventing violence against women and girls. The goal of the playful mobile application presented in the video is to reflect on equality between women and men and learn to reject all forms of violence against women and girls. Values such as solidarity and mutual respect are also promoted in the game.

Factsheet “The Interactive Path – Step by step against violence”

Strong Together is a measure that has proved to be attractive to all social sectors as it is easy to learn and implement. More than 250 people from four countries have been trained in its facilitation and more than 1.600 children from Bolivia, Ecuador, Paraguay and Peru have participated and learned, in an entertaining and unconventional way, to say “no to violence against women”.
