

Safe Institutions: Programs and training with public and governmental institutions

- Bolivia
 - Factsheet “Preventing Violence is Our Obligation.”

Bolivia

Factsheet “Preventing Violence is Our Obligation.”

The collaboration between ComVoMujer and the Brigade for the Protection of the Family (BPF) had as a priority to strengthen the BPF, so that they have the necessary means to efficiently work on prevention and attention to those affected by family violence.

Fighting Violence against Women in Latin America

Preventing Violence is Our Obligation

Context
The Family Protection Brigade (BPF) is a unit of the Bolivian army and is responsible for cases of family and domestic violence. BPF is a central unit of the Bolivian army and is responsible for cases of family and domestic violence. BPF is a central unit of the Bolivian army and is responsible for cases of family and domestic violence. BPF is a central unit of the Bolivian army and is responsible for cases of family and domestic violence.

Objectives
The collaboration between the regional program ComVoMujer and the BPF is aimed at strengthening the BPF, which means strengthening its capacity to prevent and respond to cases of family and domestic violence. The objective of the campaign is to raise awareness among the population and support affected women and children. The objective of the campaign is to raise awareness among the population and support affected women and children.

Results
The campaign has been successful in raising awareness among the population and supporting affected women and children. The campaign has been successful in raising awareness among the population and supporting affected women and children. The campaign has been successful in raising awareness among the population and supporting affected women and children.

been produced and distributed by the BPF. The aim of the collaboration and education about the problem of violence towards women. The material has been adapted to the various cultural differences among the Bolivian population (e.g. different local dialects in Bolivia).

Lessons Learned and Impact
The collaboration has highlighted the need for joint and coordinated action. For the first time, members of the Bolivian police got involved, and in cooperation with the regional program ComVoMujer, developed an integrated approach to prevent and respond to cases of family and domestic violence.

Download \(2012, pdf, 2 MB\)

View in Spanish | View in German