

From invisibility to evidence

First national LGBTI+ survey

in Ecuador

Generating official data on a population that has historically been rendered invisible requires more than political will. It requires strong alliances and rigorous methodologies. With that aim in mind, INEC, the Secretariat for Diversity within the current Ministry of Government, and the German development cooperation implemented by GIZ joined forces to produce official evidence on the living conditions of LGBTI+ individuals in Ecuador.

Download \(2026, pdf, 1,27 MB\)

View in Spanish | View in German

Revision #1

Created 18 September 2026 21:29:34 by Karen López

Updated 18 September 2026 22:13:04 by Karen López